THE ILLOHMET OF 1935

ROBERT HELM, Editor

Dear Old Metropolis
High School

FOREWARD

Welcome into the Illohmet! The members of the 1935 Illohmet Staff have endeavored to present in this Annual a pictorial review of school life during the school year 1934-1935. The theme, in keeping with the time, is Modernism. This theme has been stressed in the design, arrangement, and writing of this book.

We hope that you will find the reading of these pages enjoyable and worthwhile; that in future years they will bring back bright school memories. If this is accomplished, our goal has been attained.

ROBERT HELM, Editor.

DEDICATION

We, the class of '35 respectfully dedicate this volume of the Illohmet, to the citizens of Metropolis and Community who have made possible our years at M. C. H. S. Since it has been possible for us to enjoy the privileges of school we hope it will be just as pleasant for following classes.

Hero Worship—Fern, Mary, Peggy,
Alice and Trampe, the center of attraction.

“Mary has a little lamb.” Did it follow her to school?

Three Smiles—Velma, Maxine and Marjorie.

Wilburn (Pete) Hankins and Lavern
(Flatter) Halcom.

J. H. Craig—the man with ample proportions.

M. C. H. S. Mermaids.

Katherine Albright—A gypsy rover.

In the good “Ole” days.

Fern and Alice—Pals.

The Acrobats of M. C. H. S.

Souvenirs of Metropolis “twister.”

Hazel and Valeria.

Curt Haley—Hy, folks!

To the Board of Directors, Patrons, and Students of M. C. H. S.

As you turn the pages of this 1935 Annual Illohmet you will observe the sincere efforts of the sponsor and the staff to produce a publication that will give you a glimpse of a few of the vital organizations of our institution and some of the so-called fancies that assist in molding personalities to adjust themselves to our complicated society. May it encourage others to take advantage of our free educational institutions. May it be a source of much enjoyment in the years to come as we linger on the different pages that recall many pleasant hours and contentment.

May you cherish and enjoy this book as much as they who have labored long hours to produce it.

Sincerely yours,

B. H. SMITH.

Once upon a time a group of 78 bewildered boys and girls first entered the portals of M. C. H. S. The first meeting of this class may still be recalled by many.

In that our first year as an official class of M. C. H. S. we elected the following officers.

President Mary Harper
Vice President Bertha Carlock
Secretary Curtis Haley
Treasurer Lloyd Lambert

Even though it was our first year we were well represented in the operetta "Purple Towers" and made an excellent showing in athletics.

Our class furnished an outstanding man in both football and basketball, Lavere Gregory, who was then a member of our class. This is very extraordinary for a freshman class.

During our sophomore year at the first official meeting we elected as our officers:

President Lavere Gregory
Vice President Charles Zettler
Secretary James Walters
Treasurer Lillian Lukens

Our class was well represented in the musical comedy "Sailor Maids."

We continued our excellent showing in athletics.

In passing the 3rd milestone of our high school year the Junior class accomplished many things of notability, with the able leadership of Miss Atwell, Miss Cummins, and Mr. Sullivan.

Those outstanding were the Junior Play, "Growing Pains," one of the best in recent years, and the Junior-Senior Reception.

The class was amply supplied with funds by hard work and the willingness to work by all Junior students.

They liberally and willingly donated for the luncheon served by the Junior class to the County Teachers Institute. The boys entertained the girls at the close of the year as the result of losing the ticket-selling contest for the Junior Play.

We were well represented on the athletics squads of M. C. H. S. in football, baseball and track, and these men performed nobly as Juniors should.

The Class of 1937

The Sophomore Class of '37 consisting of fifty-nine members met at the beginning of the school year and elected the following officers:

Charles Hopson	President
Ralph Chase	Vice President
Dorothy Daly	Secretary
Russell Harper	Treasurer

The outstanding event of the year was the Sophomore party which was enjoyed by all who attended.

The class basketball team did not fare so well as last year, but made a good showing, nevertheless, winning second place.

Too much honor can not be given to Miss Rush for her untiring efforts to make the year a success for the class of '37.

The class of '38 completed a successful year, winning the interclass Basketball Tournament by defeating the Juniors and Sophomores.

The following athletes have been found among the Freshmen: Paul Holt, Sam Lowe, George Alliston, John Cooper, Ben Thane and several others who we hope will help in the following years.

The class had a picnic which was a great success and was greatly enjoyed by all.

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of 1935 of Metropolis Community High School in the county of Massac and the State of Illinois, being blessed with reasonable intelligence and such a desire to aid lesser creatures do hereby create, ordain and sanction this, our last will and testament.

To the class of '36 we leave all of our dignity and sobriety, in order that they may become examples for all underclassmen.

To the class of '37 we leave the task of raising money for the outstanding event of the year, the Junior-Senior Reception.

To the class of '38 we leave our ability to later learn what High School life is all about.

I, Golda Wallace, in sane and sober mind, will to Margaret Scott the power to arouse Mr. Schneeman's ire by giggling, a talent I possess in an enormous quantity.

I, Vernon Steele, do hereby will and bequeath my rheumatism to anybody who wants it, but hope that no one takes it.

"Wanna buy a duck?" I, Lloyd Lambert, will my duck to any freshman who has the ability to sell it before he graduates.

I, Arnold DeJarnett, will my knowledge of current events to Lowell Thomas, in order that he will keep up to the minute.

I, Barbar Frazee, will to the windiest guy in school, "Peck" Dunmire, my little bass horn hoping he has better success than I had.

I, Francis Kidd, do hereby will and bequeath my hog-raising interest to Joe Simmons, since Joe has already learned the art of hog-calling.

I, Elaine Golightly, will my curly locks to Ruth Swinford hoping they will be her crowning glory.

I, Lloyd Scott, hereby leave my ability to argue in American History Class, to pass away the period, to none other than Milford "Barrel House" Dunmire.

I, Jesse Carter, hereby will and bequeath my last fifteen cents to Pat Park so that he will quit bumming.

I, Loren James, leave my ability to look wise and act accordingly to Robert Perganda.

I, Clyde Hankins, of the City of Metropolis, State of Illinois, being of sound mind and memory do make, publish, and declare, this my last will and testament in manner and form as follows: I hereby leave my ability to get out of trouble to Pat Park.

I, Alice Morrow, will my form to Wava Lambert providing she uses her feminine charms to bewitch John Bill Estes and show him something of night life.

I, Otis "Sleepy" Waters being in sane if not sober mind do hereby will and bequeath my ability to sleep in any class with ease, to Kenneth Marberry.

I, Hazel Flanagan, being sane and sober for once, will my ability to shadow Miss Steers and Miss Lawrence to anyone who will be able to keep up with them.

I, Charles "Chad" Zettler do bequeath my belief and sincere hope that the M. C. H. S. football team will clean the slate this coming season.

I, Irene Lowry, will to any one taking typing all my nervousness on speed test days.

I, Maxine Collie, do hereby will and bequeath to nobody, absolutely nobody, my interest in Brookport.

I, Velma Steele, will my magic dancing slippers to Madge Cummins providing she uses them as much as I have.

I, D. C. Heath, will my set of boxing gloves to John Bill Estes, providing he learns to use them without being hurt.

I, Edward Haynes, will my ability as star cook to Paul Waters, hoping he learns to boil water without scorching it.

I, Helen Evers, bequeath to Helen Mae Dunn, my book "100 Different Ways to tell the Truth" with instructions to learn every one so that she may never be accused of fibbing.

I, Escoe Mathis, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to play a cornet to none other than a member of our bank, Earl Mann.

I, Elmo Karraker, will to Albert Dyer my privilege of holding sheep for judging on field trips.

I, Gladys Benjamin, hereby will to Mattie Still, my so called, "mousie" disposition and actions, providing she will always be as quiet as I am—sometimes.

I, Mary Anderson, being of a sober and almost sane mind, do will and bequeath to anyone wearing a 4½ a good pair of brown goloshes that have rested in my locker all year.

I, Sam Gurley, will to Clifford Faughn, my position as tackle on the football team, providing he will wear his hair as short as possible at all times, until he is a dignified senior.

I, Mary Harper, leave to my dear "Alma Mater" my little brother "Toar," hoping they have as much influence on him as has "Popeye."

I, Mary Alberta Hardy being partically sane and thoroughly sober leave nothing to anyone, because I have a very selfish disposition and desire to keep all I have.

I, Blanche Schmidt, will my rush to get home after school to Ruby Hillebrand and hope that she will succeed.

I, Buddy Flanagan, will my position as "jack of all trades" to J. H. Craig, so I may rest this summer.

I, Edna Schmidt, do this day will my long rides to school through the country lanes to a freshman boy.

The Hi-Y Club

The Hi-Y is an organization of older boys. Its purpose is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian Character. The slogan is the 4 C's; clean speech, clean athletics, clean scholarship, and clean living.

The Hi-Y Club was organized in this school during the school year 1928-29, and has continued to be a strong factor ever since. Membership in this club is drawn from Junior and Senior boys.

In December the entire Hi-Y Club attended the Older Boys' Conference at Carbondale. This was an outstanding event, the highlights of which were the banquet and the talks given by Mr. E. C. Wolcott, widely known boys' speaker.

The Hi-Y has sponsored this past year a food sale and show. They also printed the programs for the District Basketball Tournament.

Biology Club

The Biology Club, an organization for boys, was founded in 1931 with 15 charter members. The main object of the club is to develop an interest in outdoor life through nature study, camping, hiking, etc.

Each year immediately upon the closing of school the annual outing to Reelfoot Lake, Tennessee, is taken. About 5 days are spent here in swimming, fishing and other activities.

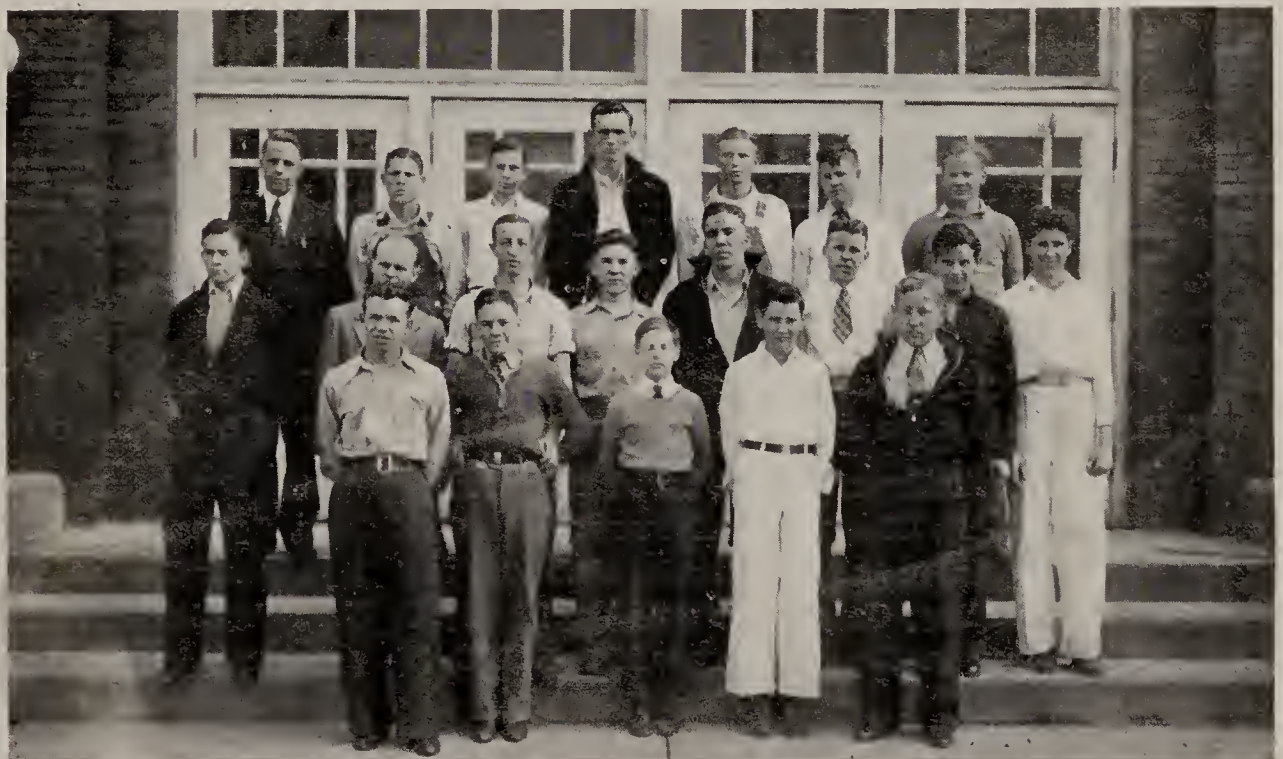

This year the club captured the championship of the Big Three, closing the season with an undefeated record. The winning team was composed of Hankins, Alliston, Carlock, Hausman, De Jarnett, Mann.

The purpose of the Vocational Home Economics Club of M. C. H. S. is to form a connecting link with the home and the school, and to stimulate interest in the art of homemaking.

The activities of the club have been varied. Among the major ones are; representation by four delegates at the Illinois Home Economics Club Conference, Springfield, Illinois; recognition by winning first place in Home Economics Club song contest; Construction of flags for Sunday School Recognition Day; Cooperation with the Metropolis Woman's Club in repairing Christmas toys for charity; inauguration and sponsorship of M. C. H. S. annual Hobby Day.

For the first time in the history of M. C. H. S. a Commercial Club has been organized. The purpose of the club is to encourage students to study the new developments of business, to become business-minded, to become social-minded, to develop high standards of scholarship, and to learn to appreciate the value of good business ethics.

Only students with A or B standing in the commercial subjects are eligible for this club.

Club Colors ----- Blue and White
 Motto ----- "Opportunity Awaits Us"

Latin Club

This club was organized this year for the purpose of making Latin more interesting for Latin I, II, and III students. All Latin III students are eligible, Latin II students are required to have a grade of 90 per cent or B, and Latin I students a grade of 95 per cent or A. Several plays were given during the year, the most outstanding one being a play in Latin Called "Medicus." Reports were given on Latin stories. Several Latin spelling matches were held for the purpose of perfecting spelling in Latin. Many interesting Latin songs were sung, also.

The Band has done some very good work this year. Many new numbers were secured and thoroughly mastered.

The Band played at the following places of importance in the past year: Over Radio Station WEBQ at Harrisburg, Illinois; Brotherhood of the City of Metropolis; Installation of Officers at the Eastern Star Lodge; The Rotary Club of Metropolis; The National Sunday School Teachers' Convention; Woman's Club Show; for school basketball and football games; Teachers' County Institute; and for the First Annual Concert which was given by the band. The Band has also played for one of the Fellowship Meetings of the Presbyterian-Congregational church. On May 12 the Band participated with other bands at the American Legion District Convention at Vienna, Illinois, winning third place.

ORCHESTRA

This orchestra was organized during the second semester of this school year and is made up largely of band members. It plays mostly popular music. Its first appearance was before the student body of the school. Other appearances were First Annual Concert, The Rotary Club, County Teachers' Meeting, and at the Brotherhood of the City of Metropolis Meeting.

The Glee Club has been very busy this year. They had a food sale and sponsored a moving picture in order to buy new music. Their operetta, "Oh, Doctor!" was a huge success and a surprise party was given for Miss Cummins, the director, by the thirty members of the Glee Club to show their appreciation.

The music for the annual Commencement will be furnished by the Glee Club.

OH, DOCTOR!

AN OPERETTA

Cast:

Dr. Drinkwater, proprietor of Sanitarium	John Collard
Dr. Slaughter:	Arnold DeJarnett
Dr. Cuttem: 3 Doctors at Sanitarium	Henry Hedden
Dr. Coffin:	Paul Waters
Mrs. Crossly:	Pauline Teckenbrock
Mrs. Weakly: Patients at Sanitarium	Billie F. Yost
Cynthia:	Dorothy Daly
Rainbow—Colored servant at Sanitarium	Loyd Lambert
Bessie, Maid at Sanitarium	Bonnie Jean Anderson
Honor, pretending to be Glory Drinkwater	Wava Lambert
Madam Chere, Honor's Mother	Mattie Still
Glory Drinkwater, Dr. Drinkwater's Granddaughter	Rose Black
Pancho, Mexican cowboy	Dale Baker
Philip, Young ranch owner	Escoe Mâthis
Jim	Henry Doyle
Old timer, from Philip's ranch	John Estes
Bob, Glory's fiance	LaVere Wiedemann
Manuel, Mexican rustler	Eldon Parks

Dr. Drinkwater, a pompous and egotistical man owning a sanitarium, is expecting his granddaughter, Glory, whom he has never seen. She is coming to spend her last twenty-four hours before her twenty-first birthday with him in order to inherit her grandmother's money.

Glory conceives the idea of sending her friend Honor in her place so she can go to South America to make a talking picture and still get her inheritance. But Bob, Glory's fiance, decides to spend his vacation at the Sanitarium. Realizing that he will spoil her plans when he sees Honor, she is forced to go there to explain to him.

Meanwhile Honor has met Philip, a young ranch owner, and they have fallen in love.

A pretentious kidnapping which turns out to be very real, a misdelivered letter, and mistaken identity confuse things, but a few words of explanation smooth away the troubles and every one is happy.

Beautiful singing and dancing helped to make this operetta one of the best ever given.

SENIOR PLAY

"The Family Upstairs"

Joe Heller, the father	Clyde Hankins
Emma Heller, the mother	Fern Niekamp
Louise Heller, the elder sister	Alice Morrow
Willie Heller, the brother	Jesse Carter
Annabelle, the baby sister	Golda Wallace
Charles Grant	Sam Gurley
Mrs. Grant, his mother	Lillian Lukens
Herbert, his brother	Loyd Lambert
Miss Calahan	Peggy Morgan

Comedy of American life in three acts

Joe Heller is a street-car inspector, earning $42.50 a week. Louise, his eldest daughter, an office worker, now twenty-one, hasn't managed to land a husband yet. Her mother is very anxious to get her properly married, and father's ambition is to get Willie to work. Annabelle, the "kid" sister, has one passion, and that is getting out of doing her piano lessons. It is a typical American home we look into; Annabelle practicing, Willie making a telephone date with a girl, Father coming home from work, worn out, Mother bossing, everyone wanting dinner.

Louise announces at dinner that a young man is calling, and she would like to have the parlor. Charles Grant comes, and after embarrassed introductions all around he is left with Louise. They are in love, and before the evening is out they are engaged.

Mother tells Grant that $100 a week is too little to live on. She tells her neighbors he is a banker (in reality he is making $40 a week.) The game of bluff goes on. Having heard all of this from Miss Calahan, Grant begins to wonder what sort of family he is getting into.

There is an unhappy half-hour when the engagement seems to be off, until Grant's mother appears on the scene. Mrs. Grant is just the bluffer that Mrs. Heller is, and both see through all the bluffs and discount them. Everything ends happily.

JUNIOR PLAY

Ouch! Wow! Growing Pains! A farce comedy of adolescence in three acts presented by the Junior Class on April 25. It was the most lively and amusing play of recent years. It was a play especially for young people, treating of youth as it hovers uncertainly on the wings of sixteen.

George and Terry are the son and daughter of Professor and Mrs. McIntyre who struggle valiantly to lead their children through the difficult phases of adolescence, so familiar to us all. Terry is shown outgrowing the tomboy stage, and unable to play with the boys, and when thrown back on her own resources she illustrates a good study of feminine psychology. George McIntyre, the boy adolescent, goes through the customary symptoms of his age—begging his parents for a car—and falling victim to the wiles of Prudence, a successful “vamp” in the neighborhood. In an effort to be outstanding in her eyes, he is disrespectful to the law and is hauled off to jail, causing an uproar in the McIntyre family. George seeks consolation from Prudence, only to be informed that he is “too young” to interest her. However, his interest in life is miraculously restored on the arrival of another new girl in the neighborhood, more his equal. Such is the life of these egocentric youths.

BASKETBALL

M. C. H. S. went through its fourth successive good season in basketball. Through the season they won 18 out of 24 season games. Some of their games were with Eldorado and Edwardsville, also Marion and Rosiclare.

In the County tournament the Trojans were nosed out by Joppa by a close score of 21-17. Next came the District Tournament. After fighting all through to the finals they were defeated by Rosiclare by only 2 points, 17-15. The Trojans were runners-up for the district in the Sectional Tourney at Carbondale. They were defeated in the first game by Marion, the score being 28-26.

The Trojans through the whole year scored 660 points against their opponents 603. The first five scored as follows:

Haynes	159	Ford	105
Chase	127	Gurley	83
Flanagan	64

The Trojans this year had one of their best football seasons in a number of years, having won four games, lost two, and tied one.

The football season started off by playing the Gleason team here. The game was the best of the year, Gleason winning by only one point 13-12. The next game was with East Prairie here. The Trojans romped over them by a score of 32-0. Murray, the Trojans' rivals, came to the M. C. H. S. football field. For about four years Murray and Metropolis have tied, or Murray had won. This year the Trojans turned the tide and defeated Murray 20-13. Then Metropolis on a hot, dusty day went to Cairo and defeated them 12-0. Cairo returned the game and were defeated again 26-6.

The next on the list was Eldorado which had a strong team. Both teams showed about the same strength, and the game was tied 6-6. The last game of the season was with Carmi. This was one of the most thrilling games of the year, Carmi winning by 12-6.

The following men will graduate off of the football team:

D. C. Heath
Clyde Hankins
Sam Gurley
Edward Haynes
"Sleepy" Waters

The Illohmet

THE ILLOHMET STAFF

The Illohmet Staff is a representative group of students from the four classes. It publishes the bi-weekly Illohmet and at the end of the school year the yearbook, also named the Illohmet.

Those chosen on the 1935 staff are:

Robert Helm	Editor-in-chief	Melva Kerr	Junior Reporter
Lillian Lukens	Ass't. Editor	Ralph Chase	Sophomore Reporter
Russell Ramer	Business Manager	Dorothy Van Hooser	Freshmen Reporter
James Nave	Athletic Reporter	James Walters	Artist
Ben Batson	Humor Editor	Fred Carlock	Artist
Bobbie Park	News Editor	Mary Hardy	Stenographer
Mary Harpei	Senior Reporter	Golda Wallace	Stenographer
Miss Ione Lawrance	Sponsor

THE ILLOHMET WEEKLY

The Illohmet has made notable advances during the past year in the publishing of a better school paper.

Last fall the Metropolis High School School became a member of the Illinois State High School Press Association, an organization of high school papers. Ben Batson, Lillian Lukens, James Nave and Robert Helm attended the district meeting at Centralia.

The publication hour, formerly 4 p. m. was moved up to 12:45 p. m. on Friday, thereby allowing the students time to read the paper in their spare moments during the afternoon.

The appearance was brightened up and made more attractive by the careful use of the mimeograph and by the art work of James Walters.

The first picture section to appear in a regular Illohmet made its debut in the April 5 issue. This "scoop," a double page of tornado snapshots, sold well, over 500 copies being sold to students and citizens who sent them to friends in all parts of the country. Credit and thanks go to Mr. H. C. Helm for the printing of this section.

THE ANNUAL ILLOHMET

The appearance of the 1935 Annual has also been greatly improved due to the modernistic design and arrangement. It has been enlarged through the addition of the snapshot panels, a picture of the building, and the Senior activities.

Another advance in the building of a better school Annual is in having individual pictures of teachers and School Board members. The School Board plays a silent but active part in the school's affairs, and we are especially glad to honor these citizens here in the yearbook.

Preface to Advertising

To The Advertisers:

You are the recognized business and civic leaders; your goods and services are the highest attainable; you make possible our schools and the publication of this year book. We fully realize all of this and take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks. We express our appreciation, too, by our patronage.

The Seniors Year by Year

Under the able leadership of Miss Atwell, Miss Wiscecarver, and Mr. Cochran our Junior year was a great success. The students of the junior class elected as their officers:

President	Lillian Lukens
Vice President	Alice Morrow
Sec. and Treas.	Chas. Zettler

Our class was again represented in a musical comedy "Gypsy Rover."

We presented on May 10, the extremely successful play "Loose Ankles." The Junior-Senior reception held on May 4 resembling a Japanese garden marked the close of a most successful and eventful year.

The students, now dignified Seniors, having come to their last year, are prepared to receive their diplomas.

This has been an extremely successful and eventful year for the Seniors.

The Senior play "The Family Upstairs" with an excellent cast was a huge success.

The Seniors were very lavishly and beautifully entertained by the Juniors at the annual Junior-Senior reception.

The Senior class sponsored a "barn dance," May 7, which was something very unusual.

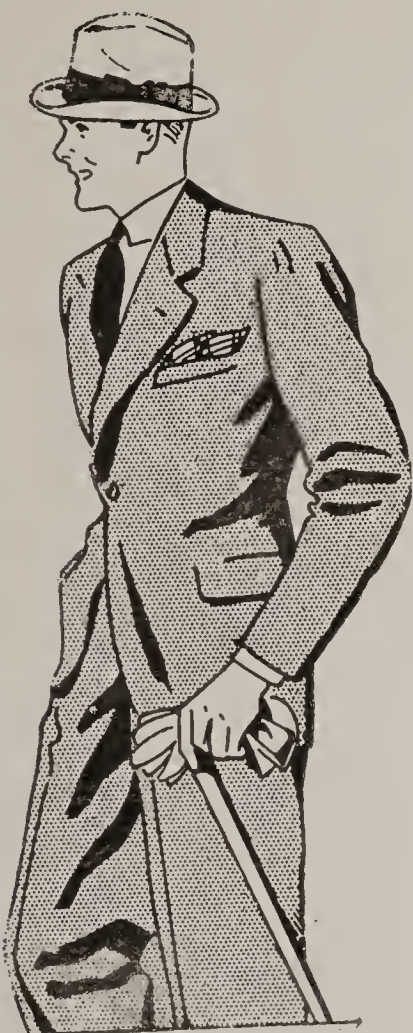

Our Senior Christmas party given by the boys, December 21, was just the thing to liven up the Christmas vacation.

On the 20th day of May the Seniors entertained with a play in the gym. This is the one day out of four years when the Seniors are granted privileges. It is usually their desire to show their dignity and knowledge.

A big ice cream social was given May 25th, by the Seniors. The proceeds went to the fund used to purchase an electric score-board to be left to the school by the class.

CALENDAR '34=== '35

- Sept. 1. School days, school days, dear old golden rule days.
- Sept. 4. Fresh day, a fresh adventure, a fresh bunch of freshies.
- Sept. 10. Do you know why there are so many "freshies" in the halls at class time? Because they don't know where else to go.
- Oct. 5. Report cards and headaches were delivered today.
- Oct. 30. The spooks and witches are haunting us on this their special day.
- Nov. 4. Carthage College Quartet sings. What a treat for the girls!

I, John Clark, will my position as window washer to some energetic freshman who can get them as clean as I have.

I, John Hausman, will my janitor's position to anyone wishing to pick up paper-wads after underclassmen.

I, Imogene Hille, will my fear for the dark to Billy Ford, and hope he will get in earlier at night.

I, Elsie Graman, being insane and partly sober mind do hereby will and bequeath my favorite typewriter to my little brother "Bob" in order that he might excel in errors as I have done.

I, Lillian Lukens, do hereby will my quiet and somber manner to Blanche James provided she will be able to succeed as well as I have.

I, John Earl Collard, being in a sound and sober mind do hereby will and bequeath my drumming ability to Robert Watson, provided he is able to stay in the band under the eagle eye of Maestro Fiocchi.

I, Stewart Cooper, will to Albert Dyer the privilege of holding Mr. Sullivan's hat while on a field trip.

SERVICE

---is a big word. It means that personal service, having courteous clerks to do your bidding, of ALWAYS having a competent and fully qualified Pharmacist on duty. It means having a neat and attractive store, and most important having what you want, when you want it.

DEPENDABILITY

In 1892 we started serving the people of Massac county, and ever since have been constantly striving to do our best. We carry all the leading brands of drugs and "ONLY THE BEST GOES." We have served your father and your grandfather, in times of health and in times of sickness. This we feel is a record to be proud of; we call it DEPENDABILITY.

Now you are growing up,
LET US SERVE YOU TOO

JOKES

Sullivan: "Thousands of Chinese hogs were used last year to make paint brushes."

Runt Lambert: "Isn't it wonderful how they are training animals to make things!"

George Miller: (at football game, to dad): Now you'll see more excitement for your $2 than you ever saw before.

Dad: I don't know about that. That is all my marriage license cost me.

Alice Morrow: (at drug store) "I came for some pills."

Clerk: "Anti-bilious?"

Alice Morrow: "No sir, It's my uncle."

Fern Niekamp: "Should I marry a man who lies to me?"

Clyde Hankins: "Do you want to be an old maid?"

Famous Last Words

"Wonder if it's loaded? I'll look down the barrel and see."

"Oh, there's the train whistle! Step on it and we'll get across the tracks before it comes."

"They say these things can't possibly explode no matter how much you throw them around."

"I wonder whether this rope will hold my weight."

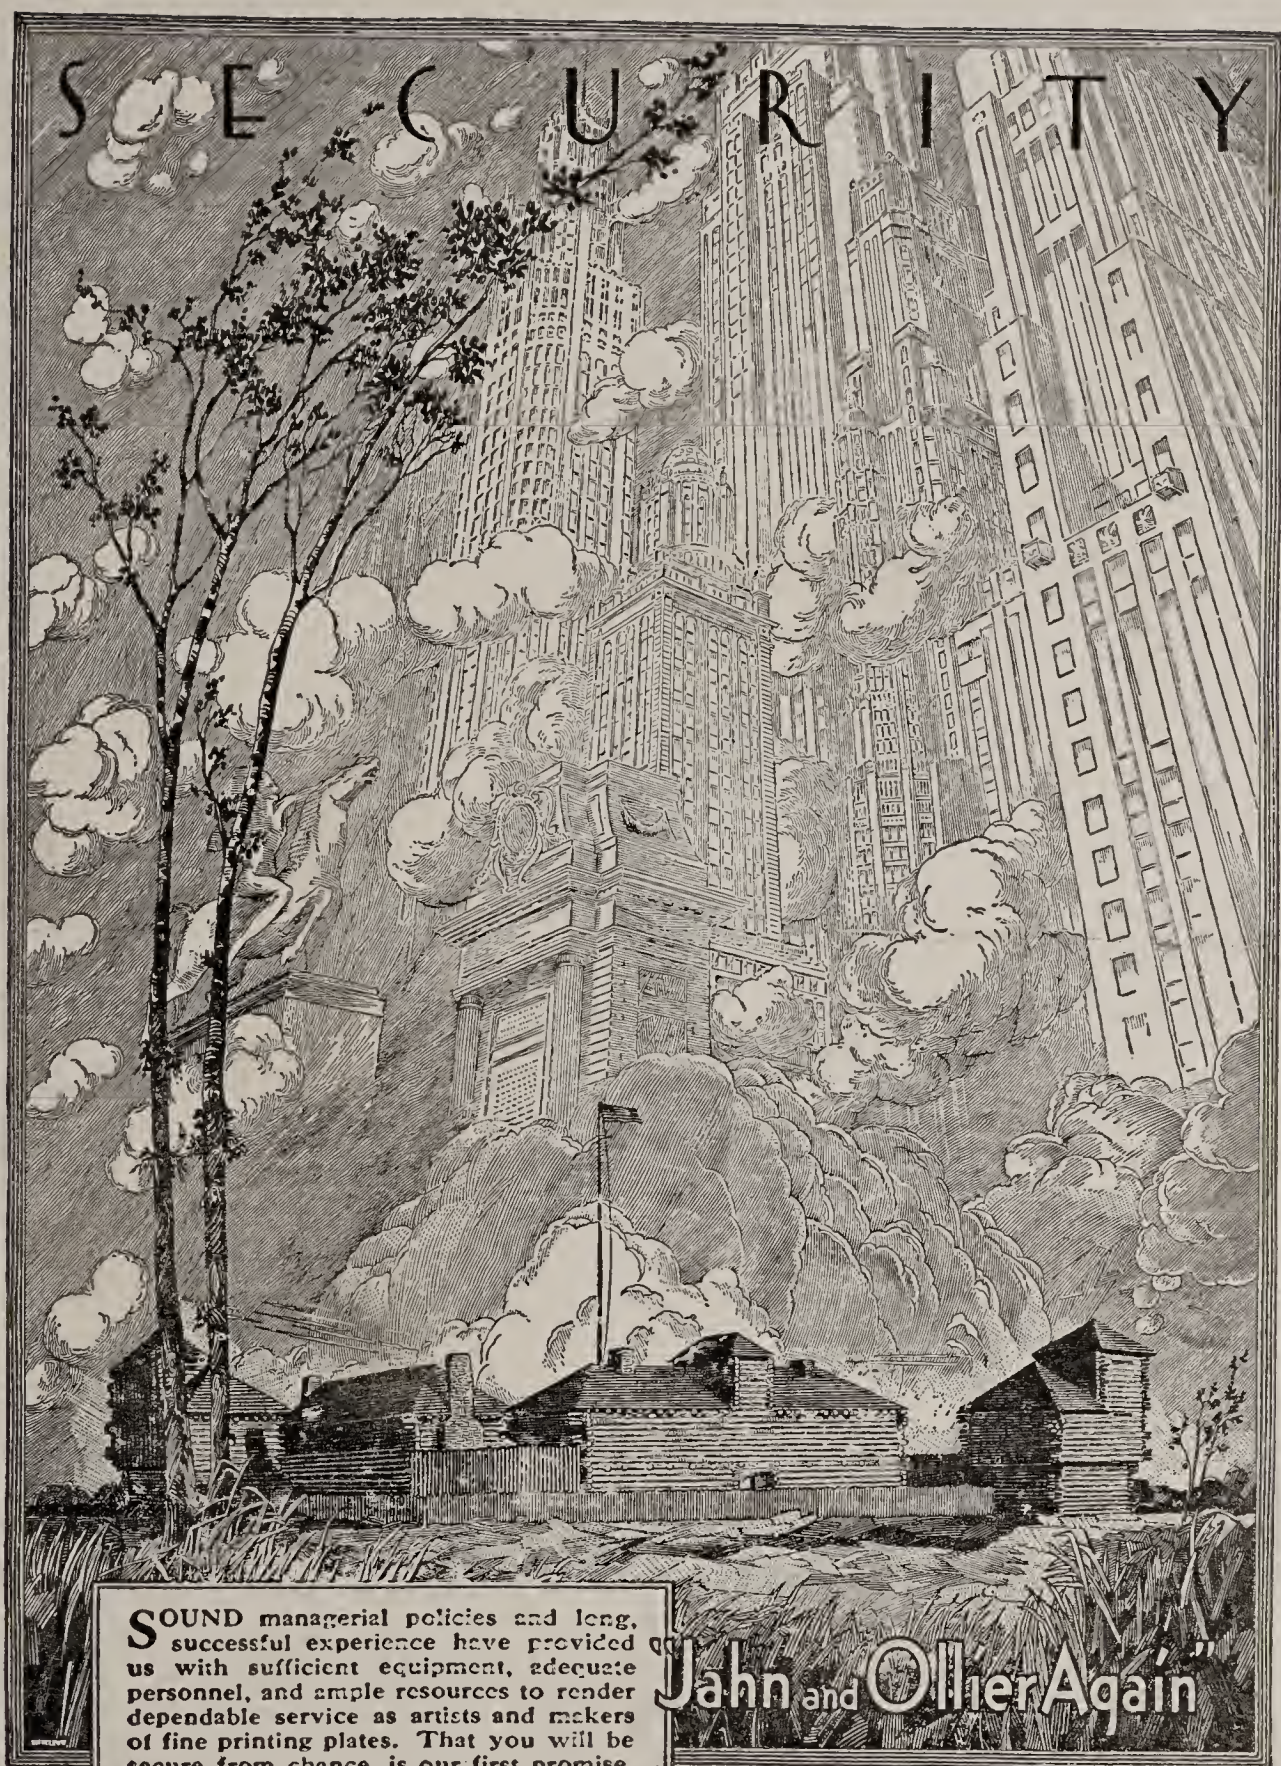

"The one way to manage a mule is to walk right up in back of him and surprise him."

"That firecracker must have gone out. I'll light it again."

Sleepy Waters: "You don't mean to tell me the main road is open all the way to Brookport!"

The logo for Van Hooser Has It Drugs features the name "VANHOOSER" in a large, bold, serif font. Below it, the words "HAS IT" are written in a smaller, bold, sans-serif font, and "DRUGS" is written in a large, bold, serif font. The entire logo is flanked by two vertical lines with horizontal bars at the top and bottom, resembling a stylized 'F' or a set of scales.
